MRS. WINCH VISITS PINEHURST Richmond Group of Alliance Francise to Meet Saturday at Art Club—Miss. Runtin to Speak on Career of General Joffre.

Mrs. George Frederick Winch, of the Chesterfield, and her cousin, Miss Julia de Bloise, of New York, who has been her guest here for several weeks past, left town yesterday for Pinehurst, N. C.
They were accompanied to Pinehurst yesterday by William de Bloise, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who joined his sister-in-law and Mrs. Winch in Richmond this week.

Mrs. de Bloise has been entertained at a great deal during her visit to Richmond, and some very handsome and interesting functions have been given in her honor.

Alliance Francaise.
The conference of the Richmond group of the Alliance Francaise will be held on Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the Art Club of Richmond.
Miss Jeanne Runtin will be the speaker of the afternoon and the subject is "General Joffre." It will be a most interesting and pleasing event and members of the society will be out in full force to attend it.

Prominent Engagement.
Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Stokes, of Washington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Madge Pickett Stokes, to R. King Stone, son of the late Dr. T.
H. Stone, and Mrs. Stone. No date has been set for the wedding. The engagement is of special interest in Washington, where both Mr. and Mrs. Stokes are well known. Miss Stokes is a member of an old Washington family, her father during his lifetime having been one of the distinguished physicians of his day. His mother, Mrs. Stone, has been noted as a beauty.

Mr. and Mrs. Stokes have recently moved to Washington and have remained a handsome residence in Massachusetts Avenue, where they will make their home in the future. Miss Stokes is one of the last surviving relatives of General George E. Pickett, of Confederate fame.

The bride-elect, who is a niece of the late Charles Stokes, of Richmond, has frequently visited here, and both she and Mr. Stone have a great many relatives and friends in this city.

Alfred Noyes Lecture.
A committee on the leading society of this city has in charge of the lecture to be given by Alfred Noyes, the well-known English poet, this month at the Jefferson Hotel. The lecture is given by the Alumnae Associa-

Miss Noyes, who is now at Princeton University, is one of the best known poets of the present day, and his lecture will win the prize two years ago.

Guest of Miss Grundy.
Miss Marion Chatter, of Seattle, Wash., is the guest of Miss Grundy, of this city, at the West Franklin Hotel. Miss Chatter has also been visiting Mrs. Alexander G. Brown, Jr., on West Franklin Street, and a num-during her stay in Richmond.

North Carolina Wedding.
Tuesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. Harrison, in Statesville, N. C., a pretty wedding was celebrated when Miss Marie Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Harrison, became the bride of Sidney J. Wellman, of Richmond.

The parlors of the Harrison home were decorated for the occasion. White roses, ferns and palms were used effectively, and there was an arch of saxifrage set with lighted candles. Miss Harrison's wedding march was played by Miss Rae Gill at the entrance of the bride and groom. The bride entered on the arm of her father. She wore a handsome gown of gray and carried a large white hat to match, and carried a Rible and a shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley. "O. Promise Me" was played during the ceremony, which was performed by Dr. Edward N. Culich, of Richmond.

After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served. The dining-room was attractive in its decorations of Richmond roses, ferns and palms.

Several out-of-town guests were present. Mrs. Cella Wellman, mother of the groom, Mrs. Moses Carls-son, sister of the groom, and Mrs.
Burrow Syckle, great-aunt of Mr. Wellman, all of Richmond, were present.
Mrs. Wellman wore a dress gown with a corsage of orchids. Mrs. Moses Syckle wore a dress gown with a corsage of roses and a large lace collar. Mrs.
Burrow Syckle's gown was to be elected with iridescent trimmings.

Mr. and Mrs. Wellman left later for a trip to New York and other Southern points. After the wedding they will be at home in this city.

Other out-of-town guests at the wedding were Ren R. Hessburg, of Richmond, and Dr. Harry Harrison, of Norfolk.

Leaving for the North.
Miss Rachel Snelling, of Roydon, who has been visiting Mrs. L. R. Runtin at 524 West Grace Street, is leaving this week to visit her sister, Mrs.
Charles U. Weisiger, of University Chambers, Huntington Avenue, Boston.
Miss Snelling will also be the guest of Miss Clara James in Boston and will return to Virginia until early in the coming summer.

Unlaid of To-Day.
Mrs. John Hayes, Mrs. James Gordon Smith and Mrs. Lewis Hinton Boshier are hostesses this afternoon for the luncheon golf tea at the Jefferson Hotel.
Mr. Garrett B. Wall has recently returned a handsome silver cup for the woman making the highest score during the season, and the tournament is most interesting one.

J. W. Noyes will give a reading from "The Woman's Club" this evening at 8:30 o'clock. Several solos will be rendered by the club members. The piano will be played by Miss Grace Lincoln.
The Richmond society is much interested in the announcement that Miss Duncan, of the Richmond Hotel, in connection with these dances will conduct a series of dances in the ballroom of the Richmond Hotel. In connection with these dances they will also conduct a cabaret, and these affairs will be most novel and pleasing.
Numbers of well-known people are expected every evening gathered about a little tables in the ballroom of the Richmond from 9 to 12 o'clock, and great many informal parties take place there.

The Woman's Club.
Mrs. J. Arthur Lefroy was chairman of the afternoon yesterday at the Woman's Club and presented James Nelson to his audience there yesterday. Mr. Nelson gave a charming reading of some of his humorous and delightful character sketches. He is a Virginian by birth, and his stories

SKETCHES FROM LIFE -- By Temple

"A 'Winter Garden' Show" have won a well-merited recognition in the literary world. Tea was served at the conclusion of the reading, and the club parlors were arranged with vases and bowls of spring flowers.

Married in Norfolk.
The marriage of Miss Ella Hornstein, daughter of Mrs. J. B. Hornstein, of Norfolk, and William Raymond, of Richmond, took place Sunday at the Bethel Synagogue in that city.

The bride wore a becoming grey traveling suit with hat to match and carried a snow-white bouquet of Kilmarney roses. Charles Littman acted as best man. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride.

with palms, ferns and flowers.

RICHMOND FASHION SHOW ATTRACTS LARGE CROWDS

Unique Displays Show Versatility of Store Buyers in Many Markets.

LATEST AND BEST TO BE HAD

Shops All in Gala Array, and Shoppers Along Broad Street Express Themselves as Immensely Taken With Season's Offerings.

The second day of the Richmond Fashion Show again attracted many crowds. And there were displayed in all the shops many new fabrics, made-up frocks, suits and chapeaus that were not put out on the opening day.
The shops were all in gala array, and shoppers all along Broad Street expressed themselves as immensely taken with the season's offerings.

LUCILE MODELS SEEN

IN THE DRESS' EXHIBIT
The "Bird Case" dress, recently described by Lucile (Lady Duff Gordon), in The Times-Dispatch, is one of the stunning creations exhibited by Dreyfus. It is in all black, with maline sleeves and a black satin peasant bodice faced by the front. The name is taken from the peculiar make-up of the skirt, which is of the sheersat ma-line, with broad satin bands set about twelve inches apart. The frock has a drop skirt of satin.

The "Watch Your Step" and the "Chin-Chin" are other noteworthy frocks. The former a copy of the one worn in the play by that name by Mrs.
Vernon Castle, is in baby blue silk, the full skirt banded in canary, with features of pink rose buds between.
Flower wristbands and neck pieces to match the hats are dainty novelties offered by this firm.

FOURQUEAN, TEMPLE & CO.

DISPLAY WONDERFUL FABRICS

The keynote of this firm's display is the great variety and beauty of materials for tub frocks. The silks and laces for evening wear are beautiful in texture and color. Among those that are new is the lace cloth, printed lace voiles and lattice voiles. The suits for semi-dress occasions shown by this firm are also distinctive. Silk poppin and faille in putty and sand shades vie with the popular shepherd checks. The prevailing lines are the high waist line in back, with a drop to the normal line in front. The pleated and circular flare skirts predominate.

PETITION IS DENIED

Supreme Court Will Not Intervene in Case of William Matthews.

Judge James Keith, of the Supreme Court of Appeals, yesterday denied the petition for a writ of error and super-addition in the case of the Commonwealth against William Matthews, colored, tried in the Circuit Court of Dinwiddie County. Matthews was convicted on January 20 of assaulting Joe Hinton and cutting Eugene Parsons.

The Supreme Court received the appeal of R. V. Turner in the case of Turner against the South and West Improvement Company, coming from the Circuit Court of King George County. The case is a suit of equity, the plaintiff, Turner, seeking to enjoin the defendant from obstructing a right of way which the plaintiff claims for the benefit of his estate, through the defendant's estate, known as Walshingham, to the main road at Port Conway.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Boards of Branch Public Baths Take Action on Death of Founder.

Suitable resolutions regarding the death of John P. Branch were adopted yesterday at a joint meeting of the boards of managers of the Branch public baths. Mr. Branch contributed much to the growth and development of Richmond, and the establishment of public baths in the city was probably one of his most charitable acts.
Both of the public bath-houses in Richmond were donated to the city by Mr. Branch.

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH

Tells How To Open Clogged Nostrils and End Head-Colds.

You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone.
Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache, no hawking, snuffling, mucous discharges, or dryness, no struggling for breath at night.
Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils. Let it penetrate through every air passage of your throat and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly.

It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable.

THE NEW MODELS

Shown at "THE FAMOUS" After beholding the multi-colored costumes, an all-black suit gives a restful note. A black gabardine relieved at neck and wrists by collars and cuffs of Bulgarian embroidery is such a one shown at the famous shop. The fancy belt crosses the back of the coat just below the shoulders. The flaring skirt is fitted to the figure at the top, and it flares out well at the ankles. This suit is worn just to the shoe tops.

A little "suspender dress" is another popular style shown by this firm. The navy blue skirt and the two sets of straps running over the shoulders are of crepe meteor. The bodice is putty colored with Goblein blue flowers.

TYLER'S OPENING REVEALS

MANY SMART SUITS

Men and women shared honors equally at the Tyler opening. Easter suits for both in the latest cuts and colors and good window display against backgrounds of green added to the festival occasions.

The neutral tinted suits, both in silk and wool material, were the most favorably commented upon. For wear with these there is a good selection of waists on display. The "country club," a silk striped waist with reversible collar, is one of the newest.
For the kiddies the little Oliver Twist suits, which promise to be prime favorites in children's clothes this year.

HAROLD GARMENT SHOP

MAKES GOOD SHOWING

A big exhibit of coats, suits, dresses and waists marked both days of the Fashion Show in the Harold Garment Shop. The suit materials most used were wool, shepherd plaids, men's wear or French serge and wool crepe, in all the up-to-the-minute styles. All the newest colors were there together with a good assortment of gowns in the more conservative black and blue.

Separate coats in a wide variety of styles and silk waists that would suit the most fastidious, in covert cloth, storm serge and other pleasing materials.

REMEMBER THIS!

While it is conceded that our designs, materials and workmanship are superior, it is a well-known fact that our prices are uniformly low.

Last Day of the Formal Showing To-Day

THE KAUFMANN STORE

In the Garden of Fashions

WE planted the seed weeks ago, and had the wonderful little sprouts transplanted to our salons for the Opening Exposit-tion. And Tuesday and Wednesday the sun shone forth in the shape of unstinted approval from the critical and fashionable women of Richmond. The sun shone down with glowing warmth, and the flowers of fashion flashed into full bloom almost in a moment.

"Richmond has never seen such styles," said one well-known woman.
"Even a tyro could tell them as actual models of the great designers." "You certainly deserve thanks for procuring authentic models such as these," said another.

And our reply is this: Our thanks is ample when women come and see and are pleased. We want your appreciation in the form of patronage—and the surest way to get it is to deserve it.
